

Media information concerning Bandy World Championship 2013

Ädelfors folk school is as the official media partner during the Bandy World Championship in Sapa Arena, Vetlanda, Sweden, 23-26 January 2013.

Ädelfors folk school has been running a journalist education for several years. The students will, under the command of their course manager Håkan Bengtsson and journalist Anders Fallenius widely report before, during and after the championship.

Everything will be presented at FIB:s official site <http://worldbandy.com/wcsd/> , the organizers Vetlanda Bandy Klubbs official site, www.vetlandabk.se , and the schools online magazine www.14dagar.se.

In addition extensive reports will occur on FIB:s official twitter account, worldbandy.com

Television reports will also be made and shown on the participating websites mentioned above.

Reports will in addition be shown on an big screen television at the lodgings of participating teams.

Several matches during the championship will be broadcasted live via radio at local frequency 106.6. There's also an opportunity to listen via the Internet at <http://radio.adelfors.nu:8000>

Several radio reports will be made in addition to the live broadcasts. There will also be an exclusive daily newsletter.

"This is a big and exciting challenge for us. We are very grateful for any help offered from organizers and the participating teams, to be able to get the best possible reports out. Never before has a Bandy World Championship had such an extensive coverage", says course manager Håkan Bengtsson in a statement.

For contact with the editors, please call:

+46 708 967 104

+46 706 642 512